'87!

It was great to see so many of you on Monday evening for our annual Class business meeting/social hour. Before I get into the Class meeting debrief, there is one late-breaking, near-term event I would like to draw to your particular attention:

Please join your Classmates on Saturday, April 29 @1000 at Hubbard Hall (Boathouse) – for the dedication of the new Mark Hamilton crew shell. Mark's Dad (Tom Hamilton) and Mark's brother and sister will be in attendance. If you plan to attend the dedication: please rsvp to me (president@usna87.net) and cc: CAPT Rusty Yeiser (rusty.yeiser@usna.com) for headcount, access credentials (if required) and parking. If you desire to sent Mr. Hamilton a note, he would welcome your email at: hamiltontp@yahoo.com

Secondly, I am including links to the deck and a recording of the business meeting portion of the zoom call. As you'll see, we covered a lot of ground. You may also notice peppered throughout the brief that we are soliciting YOUR input and participation in several of our initiatives and ongoing concerns (summarized here):

Finally, a heads-up on the upcoming Naval Academy Foundation Great Class Challenge 2023 :

It's a five-day level of participation fundraising event (8-12 May) (meaning that even a small contribution counts in a big way)! Please consider a donation of $19.87 to help us get into the top 10 and beat our 2022 record! In 2022, the Class of 1987 rallied to 21st place with 150 donors (15.81% participation rate). Let's crush it!

Go Navy!
